Scottsville Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SCOTTSVILLE, VA., December 14.—The silver tea given on Friday evening for the benefit of the Horseshoe Club was well attended, and a nice little sum realized. The program was largely a musical one. Mr. H. L. Darby, of Fluvanna, playing many selections on the violin, accompanied by Miss Evans, Miss Pitts, Cornelia and Beal furnished music for the dance which followed. An appetizing supper was served during the evening.

Miss Ella Schultz, of Arvonla, visited Scottsville Friday.

The condition of Mrs. M. F. Briggs, of this place, who has been confined to her room for about a year, has suddenly become worse, and her recovery is doubtful.

Messrs. E. H. and J. L. Day are visiting their parents here.

Bergeant Marcellus Sutherland, who was recently thrown from his horse and painfully hurt is recovering, and will soon be out again.

Prof. W. E. Gilbert, principal of the Albemarle High School, spent Sunday in Scottsville.

Mr. G. L. Faulconer, after spending several days with his mother here, has returned to Atlanta, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ethel Faulconer.

Superintendent Joseph W. Everett spent Monday and Tuesday in Scottsville visiting the high school.

The Rev. W. L. Burner, of Enon, Va., preached an excellent sermon at the Episcopal church here on Sunday morning, and on Sunday evening conducted services at Albemarle.

Mr. W. C. White, of Hardware, visited Scottsville Saturday.

Misses Marie and Lottie Pitts, of Arvonla, spent a part of last week with relatives here.

Mr. G. W. Tapscott, of Buckingham, was in the town Monday.

Mrs. F. H. Farrar spent Saturday and Sunday at "Rosa Hill" with Mrs. S. E. Payne and Miss Eva Payne, of Esmont, visited Scottsville Wednesday.

Mr. Allen Christian, of Richmond, preached in the Presbyterian Church here on Sunday, and after the morning service a congregational meeting was held and a call extended to Mr. Christian as stated supply of the church. The call was accepted.

Mr. Edward Moon, of Buckingham, visited Scottsville this week.

Mr. Paullett, of Fluvanna, has moved into the residence recently occupied by Miss Hannah Moore. Miss Moore now occupies her new home on Valley Street.

South Boston Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., December 14.—Mrs. Robert H. Murray gave an elegant luncheon on Friday at her home.

Covers were spread for eight guests, and an exquisite bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums occupied the center of the table, from which each guest partook of the palatable viands. After luncheon was served, the guests repaired to the parlor, where bridge whist was indulged in for quite a while. Place cards were hand-painted.

Those present were Messrs. John Watkins, Robert Edmondson, S. C. Morton, Jr., W. L. Jordan, J. C. Green, of this place, and Miss Hattie Holcomb, of Danville.

Rev. P. A. Anthony, pastor of the Baptist Church here, who has been enjoying a sojourn in Chase City on account of impaired health, has returned home much improved and will deliver his regular sermons on Sunday.

Mrs. Prentiss D. Johnston, of Pocahontas, Va., visited Mrs. R. W. Lawton this week.

Mr. William McWood, of New York, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Jangle during the week.

Miss Addie May Edwards, of Keysville, is visiting Mrs. J. A. Thomas.

Mr. T. B. Johnson, of this place, has returned from Richmond, where he spent a few days.

Mrs. Carrie V. Clarke, who has been quite sick, is improving slowly.

Miss Inogen Watkins, who has been visiting friends in Richmond, has returned home.

Mrs. Bettie Norwood, of Salisbury, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. J. David Norwood, a former resident of this place, but now of Salisbury, N. C., is spending some time in Tampa, Fla., in search of health. He has many friends here who wish for him a speedy restoration to health again.

Mrs. W. D. Hill, who has been on an extended visit to Washington, Philadelphia and other places of interest, has returned home.

Columbia Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
COLUMBIA, VA., December 14.—Mrs. Ronald Cooke, who has been sick for several weeks, has gone to Richmond for medical attention, and expects to remain a month.

Master Jamie Payne, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Payne, is now convalescing after a tedious attack of fever.

Mrs. John Bowles and children, who have been living at Hurt, Va., have moved here to have the advantage of a good school and Sunday school.

Mrs. Mina Walton is spending several weeks with friends at Palmyra.

Mrs. T. C. Willis and Miss Mary Willis, of Fork Union, were here Saturday, doing Christmas shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Corcoran, of Cedarhurst, L. I., were here Sunday on their way back home after a ten-day's visit to relatives in Virginia.

Mrs. Willie Gray Shepherd and Mr. and Mrs. A. Gray, of Staunton, have returned from a visit to Richmond.

Miss Nora Perkins stopped here a few hours Saturday on her way to Washington, after having spent the autumn at Aulando, N. C.

Mrs. Sallie Smith is spending a month with Mrs. W. H. Sallers.

Burwell Seay has returned from a business trip to Richmond.

Keysville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
KEYSVILLE, VA., December 14.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Episcopal Church here held a bazaar last week in the old bank building, which looked very attractive with its many booths. Refreshments were served, and quite a large sum was realized.

Miss Lucy Eggleston, one of Smithville's most attractive belles, has been visiting Mrs. Charles Osborne the past week.

Mrs. Lawrence Priddy, of New York City, is visiting at Beecher's, the country home of Mr. R. T. Priddy.

Several of our young ladies and men went on a merry hunting party Saturday. They reported a plenty of fun, but not much game.

Mrs. Fred Hamner, Mrs. Mary, Mrs. Dixon and Miss Elsie Robertson were visiting in Richmond last week.

Mr. Fred Hamner is out again after a long and severe illness.

Cornelia—Dillard.—SPOTSYLVANIA, VA., December 14.—A very modest and pretty country wedding occurred at Spotsylvania yesterday when Miss Mary P. Dillard, daughter of Mr. Isaiah Dillard, of Spotsylvania, became the wife of Mr. William D. Cornelia, of Culpeper county.

The bride was tastefully attired in a traveling suit of easter cloth, with hat and trimmings to match. The ceremony was celebrated in the parlors of Mr. J. P. H. Crismond, after which the bride and groom, with attending friends, partook of refreshments at the Historic Hotel, which were prepared by the veteran host, Mr. H. A. Carner, and his beautiful and accomplished daughters, Misses Edna and Elva Carner. The bride and groom will make their home in Culpeper.

To Our Patrons:

We advise early action on the part of every Xmas buyer—come out early in the mornings this week and get away from the busy bustling crowd that visits the store during the afternoons. Evening shopping will also prove pleasant and profitable.

We're Ready to Fill Every Want

Ready to make your Xmas all the merrier by giving you a wide range for choice in just the things you're seeking most. This entire store is like fairyland itself. It's the equal of a great metropolitan store, so vast are the assortments—so varied the display as a whole. Of course, we'll entertain the largest crowd of the year this week—we fully expect to, and we've made preparations that will help you to be served promptly. Scores of extra salespeople have been employed—every stock has been augmented in a way that will make your Xmas shopping tour agreeable indeed. Come early to-morrow!

To Our Patrons:

Take all small packages with you from now on until Xmas. We suggest this in view of the many hundreds of large parcels that will tax our delivery force to its utmost.

Buy now and have your gift delivered when you want it.
